It was very valuable and very well presented. Informative, interesting, and very relevant to both work and personal life. It will help me change someone's life.

A really great event making the client the focus and living in the customers shoes, it made me recognize the areas I can improve on to let the customers have the best experience.

My outcome from the training is to be an eagle not a duck so to change someone's day above and beyond!

A day of personal growth and getting skills to service our customers better. It was really good and kept focus.
